In support of the Accelerated Action Plan, Government of Sindh

PROGRAMME FOR IMPROVED NUTRITION IN SINDH

In support of the Accelerated Action Plan, Government of Sindh

Expected Results of PINS’ Nutrition-Sensitive Component in Dadu

will be mobilized and trained to improve their food intake as well as helping reduce water-borne diseases through disaster-resilient WASH infrastructures and sustainable food production systems through the following community institutions

- HOUSEHOLDS (approx.): 58,734

- Community Resource Persons: 29
- Masons and Plumbers: 291
- WASH Entrepreneurs: 2,919

Agriculture Entrepreneurs:
- Will receive training to manage Farmer Field Schools and conduct activities such as train community members on kitchen gardening
- Will provide construction services in target areas
- Will have access to safely managed drinking water through mapping, testing, chlorination and rehabilitation of communal water sources

Community Livestock Extension Workers:
- Will be trained on livestock management and provide services including vaccination, drenching and breeding to community members
- Union Councils will benefit from 110 Community Physical Infrastructure Initiatives

Livestock Entrepreneurs:
- Will be trained on poultry management and receive inputs to improve community access to poultry products
- VOs will have access to safely managed drinking water through mapping, testing, chlorination and rehabilitation of communal water sources

Poultry Entrepreneurs:
- Will be trained on poultry management and receive inputs to improve community access to poultry products
- VO will have access to safely managed drinking water through mapping, testing, chlorination and rehabilitation of communal water sources

WASH Entrepreneurs:
- Will be trained on sanitation concepts including its marketing, latrine construction and develop linkages with CRPs, masons and plumbers
- VO will have access to safely managed drinking water through mapping, testing, chlorination and rehabilitation of communal water sources

Community Resource Persons:
- Will collect household data and carry out Community-led Total Sanitation, develop Village Action Plans and conduct awareness sessions on WASH and better nutrition
- VO will have access to safely managed drinking water through mapping, testing, chlorination and rehabilitation of communal water sources

Expected Results of PINS’ Nutrition-Sensitive Component in Dadu

Small Farmers will receive financial support to purchase seeds and other inputs

VOs will have access to safely managed drinking water through mapping, testing, chlorination and rehabilitation of communal water sources

Households pregnant and lactating women and children under 5 will receive 2 goats

Demo Latrines will be constructed based on an approved disaster resilient design

Households (0-23 PSC) will be provided with vegetable seeds for Kitchen Gardens at HH-level

PINS is funded by the European Union

European-Union-in-Pakistan
ProgrammeforImprovedNutritioninSindh